HIKING TRAIL RULES

- Stay on Marked Trails: For your safety and to preserve the beauty of our natural surroundings, stay on designated paths within the Property Line.
- Leave No Trace: Help us maintain the beauty of our trails! Carry out what you carry in, and bring doggy bags and a leash for your furry friends.
- No Motorized Vehicles: Trails are for walking and riding only; motorized vehicles are not allowed unless otherwise requested.
- Be Prepared: Use caution when hiking, carry water, wear appropriate footwear, and be aware of your surroundings. If hiking alone, tell someone where you are going!
- Yield to Riders: For your safety, step off the trail and yield to riders to avoid startling horses.
- Respect Wildlife: Observe from a distance and refrain from feeding or disturbing animals.

TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS

- 1 Trigger Trail: A charming neighborhood trail starting at the intersection of Red Barn Trail and our Community Center, guided with easements into Hollow Creek Land Preserve.
- 2 North Pecan Trail: Featuring riding easements alongside Anderson Road for equestrian riders, this trail passes through the community Pecan Grove and leads into Hollow Creek Land Preserve.
- 3 East Dogwood Trail: Wander through a canopy of fragrant dogwoods and other flowering trees, including wild Magnolias Trees, Eastern Redbuds, and flowering Pear Trees.
- 4 South Boundary Trail: Ideal for the adventurous hiker, this oblong trail traverses over a mile around the Southern boundary of Anderson Farms and connects to the community’s Eastern trail system.
- 5 West Mill Creek Trail: Intersecting Sunder and Red Barn Trail, this half-mile path leads through the Wetlands of Hollow Creek with an offshoot leading to a hidden meadow.
- 6 Red Barn Trail: With a sandy upward slope leading from the Community Center towards the Wetlands near Hollow Creek, this trail travels through lush forest undergrowth and a variety of stunning native flora.
- 7 Laurel Trail: A short trek that loops around the pond next to Songbird Court and provides stunning seasonal displays of blooming mountain laurels, wild jasmine, and dogwood trees.
- 8 Sunder Trail: A scenic route that cuts across Cool Mount Drive and provides breathtaking views of the sunlit clearings, shaded groves, and verdant forests surrounding Anderson Farms.
- 9 Deer Trail: Naturally abundant with wild Blackberries and Raspberries, hikers on this trail are often lucky to spot elusive White-Tailed Deer under cover of the forest.
- 10 Triple Pine Trail: Distinguished by distinct patterns of triplet Longleaf Pine Trees, this trail is ideal for equestrians with soft, sandy soil and a wide-shouldered pathway.
- 11 Cherry Lane Trail: This trail includes gravel pathways extending around Cherry Park, featuring Yoshino Cherry Trees and a neighborhood pavilion.
- 12 Fern Trail: Leading directly from Cherry Park to the community’s Western border, wind your way through a carpet of native ferns along the edges of the trail.
- 13 Old Dam Trail: Explore the remnants of a ruined dam along this short outlet peeking over Hollow Creek, providing captivating views of a densely forested stream and abandoned mill.
- 14 Hollow Creek Trail: This wandering loop wraps around Anderson Pond in Hollow Creek Land Preserve, encompassing 110-acres of natural woodland filled with indigenous flora and fauna.
